

Fadi Abi-Aad

Chief Information Officer

With over 35 years of experience in Information Systems Management and consultancy services, Mr. Fadi Abi Aad joined Bank of Beirut in August 2021 as the Chief Information Officer to head the group's strategic Information Technology division.

Prior to joining the Bank, Mr. Abi Aad held various key positions at renowned institutions in Beirut, Montreal and Kuala Lumpur, including SGBL where he headed the IT Development Department and the IT Strategy and Reengineering, Isticharat – BML P&S and E.T.I. Inc Montreal. For several years, he served as Management Lecturer at Holy Spirit University (USEK) and at Notre Dame University (NDU).

Mr. Abi-Aad holds an Executive Master's Degree in Business Administration from ESCP Europe- Paris, a Post Graduate Diploma in Telecommunication Networks from Agence Universitaire de la Francophonie and a Bachelor's degree in Electric Engineering from Saint Joseph University, School of Engineering(E.S.I.B.)

Mr. Abi-Aad is also member of "the Order of Engineers and Architects of Beirut" – Since 1993 "the Project Management Institute (PMI)" – Since November 2005 and former President of the PMI – Lebanon Chapter 2009 –2011